As a school that is continuing to grow, our focus in 25-26 was on the advancement of the resources to support children with movement, ensuring that the new scheme adopted last year (Get Set 4 P.E) has the resources to make this successful transition.

This work has centred on improving access to high-quality equipment, refining planning materials and strengthening staff confidence in the delivery of physical education. By aligning our resources with the expectations of Get Set 4 P.E, we are supporting consistency across the curriculum and creating a more effective learning experience for all pupils.

4. Swimming

Does your school have year 6 pupils?	No
